"The Bulletin of Beth David Synagogue"

VOLUME LIX, ISSUE 3
Purim 2018-5778

FROM THE RABBI

The book of Esther, Megillat Ester, which we are required to read twice on Purim, once in the evening and again during the day of Purim, describes the attempt by Haman to kill the Jews of the Persian kingdom and how we were saved from annihilation and destruction. Besides celebrating the victory of the Jewish people back in ancient times, I believe that this book can be studied in our generation and time in order to enlighten us to the language of anti-Semitism and how to best fight against it.

Haman, when he introduces his plan to kill the Jews, says to the king: "There is one nation scattered and dispersed among the nations throughout the provinces of your kingdom, whose laws are unlike those of any other nation and who do not obey the laws of the King. It is not in the King's interest to tolerate them." (Chapter 3, verse 8)

Haman attempts to isolate the Jewish people's vulnerabilities in the eyes of the establishment. Even though you can find Jews in every nation, they consider themselves as their own nation, separate from everyone else. They are loyal only to themselves, they have their own laws and customs, their own unique sense of values, and because they are all over they control the political, economic, social and educational life of each nation and of the central government, as well. They are insidious in all areas of society and their goal is to rule the world. In the words of the current government of modern day Persia, Iran, they are a cancer that must be removed.

Such claims find a welcoming home in the hearts of all anti-Semites. Today, the desire for the destruction of Jews and Judaism is being verbalized as being against the State of Israel. But make no mistake that when the cloak of hatred is uncovered, the goal is the destruction of all Jews anywhere in the world.

Yet, ironically, the way to defeat this plague is implicit in the charge itself, and that was apparent in the time of Haman and is still necessary in our times today.

When Mordechai convinces Esther that she must act on behalf of her people, Esther conditions her willingness to take the lead upon one request. She sends a message to Mordechai and demands, "Go and gather all the Jews who are in Shushan and fast for my sake, do not eat and do not drink for three days, night and day ... then I shall go to the king (Chapter 4, verse 16).

If you want to successfully combat this anti-Semitic decree, you must create unity among the Jewish people, and they must prepare a Jewish response. Gather the Jews together, pray together, and act as a unified group who will stand up for their values, for our values.

This prescription is so greatly needed today in order to combat modern day anti-Semitism. Let us start by gathering together in the synagogue on Purim night and morning to observe the laws of Purim: listening to the megillah together, sharing gifts with one another, helping financially the less fortunate in our community and in Israel, and rejoicing in a festive meal together. This will be a great beginning in creating the unity that Esther demanded, and will be the first step in ending the plague of anti-Semitism present in our generation.

Chag Purim Sameach!

FROM THE PRESIDENT

It is my great pleasure to announce that Rabbi Zev Silber will be the honoree at the Beth David Dinner this year; a very well deserved honor for his dedicated and distinguished career as principal and Rabbi in our Jewish community.

The Dinner will be held on May 6 so please mark your calendar and save the date. We will be sending out invitations in late March.

Purim is coming and I will be planning our Purim Seuda for March 1. We will be sending out flyers and your quick response will help in the planning. I look forward to a nice crowd to share in our Purim celebration.

We continue to beautify our building. Our latest project is the painting and renewing of both offices which has been completed and looks great. Thank you to Victor Shevchenko for always helping to keep Beth David beautiful. The next project that I am looking into is to remodel our kitchen. I am getting estimates and I will let you know in the next ChaiLine if that will be a possibility.

A few weeks ago the weather prediction for Saturday was extremely cold weather and it was decided that we would not have services because it was dangerous for people walking to Shul. It was the first time that I ever remembered that we closed the Shul on Shabbat. What a difficult morning it was for me thinking that this is what it would feel like if we no longer had Beth David. We must always remember the importance of our Shul in our lives and support Beth David by being a part of it.

There are lots of events to look forward to. Have a Happy Purim and remember to give Purim charity to those who are needy.

*Saba Wiesner
President*

PURIM CUSTOMS and PRACTICES

When: Purim begins on Wednesday, February 28 at night, and lasts through the day of Thursday, March 1. The fast of Esther is observed on Wednesday, February 28.

Work is permitted on Purim. However, we usually spend most of the day in fulfillment of the various mitzvot of Purim, as will be enumerated below.

The Four Parshiot: There are special Torah readings of the maftir during four shabbatot from the Shabbat before Rosh Chodesh Adar until the Shabbat of Rosh Chodesh Nisan. The Shabbat before Purim we read Parshat Zachor – remember – and this serves as an affirmation to remember the evil that occurred to the Jewish people in the past and a commitment to never forget, and never again allow genocidal murder to take place. According to most authorities, hearing this portion of the Torah read is one of the 613 mitzvot. You are encouraged to be in shul on Shabbat morning, February 24 to fulfill this obligation.

Ta'anit Esther – the fast of Esther: We fast on the day before Purim in commemoration of the fasting that the Jews observed on the day of the battle. The name of the fast is associated with Queen Esther, as she had declared three days of a national fast before approaching the king to request the annulment of Haman's decree. The fast is observed on Wednesday, February 28. This fast is observed from morning to night, beginning at 5:13 am and ending at 6:35 pm. It is customary not to eat until after the reading of the Megillah. If you have special circumstances that may make it difficult to fast, or you need to eat before the reading of the Megillah, please consult with the rabbi.

Reading the Megillah: It is a mitzvah to hear the Megillah, the scroll of Esther, read both at night and during the day of Purim. At Beth David we will be reading the Megillah on Wednesday night, February 28 at 6:35 pm and Thursday morning, March 1 at 7:15 am, following Shacharit. If you cannot make the early morning reading, you are invited to join for an additional reading at the shul at 4:00 pm, prior to the festive meal.

It is customary to contribute to synagogue maintenance before hearing the Megillah, in commemoration of the machatzit hashekel, the three half shekels that were given each year in Adar for the maintenance of the holy Temple in Jerusalem.

Matanot La'evyonim – Gifts to the poor: It is a mitzvah to give at least two gifts to each of two poor people on this day as Purim charity. The rabbi will be collecting and distributing Purim charity to local Jewish poor through the Jewish Family Service and to the poor in Israel through the Od Yosef Chai organization. Contributions for this purpose should be made to the Rabbi's Discretionary Fund and please note how you wish your contribution to be divided, between local or Israel needs. Contributions for local needs must be made by February 22, while gifts for Israeli poor may be made until the morning Megillah reading.

Mishloach Manot – food gifts to friends: Commonly known as shalach manos, we give at least 2 portions of ready-to-eat foods to at least one other person. The mitzvah of sharing Purim joy through food is commendable, but more of our holiday funds should be allocated for gifts to the poor.

Seudat Purim – the Purim feast: It is a mitzvah to participate in a festive meal on Purim day (not at night). Beth David will conduct its annual Purim Seudah on Thursday, March 1 at 5:00 pm. See announcement in this issue!

Special prayers: On ta'anit Esther we add special prayers and Torah reading at both the morning and afternoon services, as is customary for fast days. On Purim we add al hanissim in Grace after meals and the amida. If one forgets, it need not be repeated. There is a special Torah reading in the morning, before the megillah reading. The day after Purim is known as Shushan Purim and is the day that Purim is celebrated in Jerusalem. We do not say tachanun in honor of day.

Matanot La'evyonim – Purim Charity

One of the mitzvot of Purim is to deliver gifts to the poor on Purim day. Rabbi Silber will again distribute gifts to local needy through the Jewish Family Service, and to Israeli poor through the Od Yosef Chai charitable organization.

Believe it or not, there are Jewish needy in our city and when they have received help at holiday time, they have expressed great thanks and satisfaction. Purim, being a holiday dedicated to “simcha” – joy, requires us to assure that all Jews can rejoice. The poor rejoice when they have the means to sustain their lives, leading to the importance placed on this mitzvah.

In order to participate in this mitzvah, donations may be sent to the shul or given to the rabbi by February 22. Donors are asked to mark their checks as “Purim charity” and specify whether they wish the money to be distributed locally or in Israel. Contributions received after February 22 will be sent to Israel. Those contributions may be made up to the megillah reading on Purim morning.

SISTERHOOD

Sisterhood's winter meeting (January 10) at the Endicott Library was interesting and fun. We were shown how to use Ancestry.com, both the free version and the paid for version. There is a lot on the free version if you want to try it. Thank you to Gail M. Szeliga who presented the program. Thank you to Susan Wright, Judy Silber and Cathy Velenchik who brought the refreshments.

Our December Chanukah meeting was highlighted by the Mizmor Shir choir, led by Moshe Shmaryahu. Judy Silber prepared Chanukah games and refreshments with help from Moshe Shmaryahu who made latkes. Thanks to all.

I would also like to thank Nancy Basmann for taking pictures at our meetings and functions and getting them to Rhonda Levine who captions them and sends them on to the "Reporter" in great time. These women are on the ball.

A happy Purim to all.

Thanks for your help during the 8 weeks of my eye surgery and recovery. It was most appreciated.

Rita E. Shawn

I want to thank all those who made donations, sent cards, brought food, made phone calls, and visited during the time of my sitting shiva following the passing of my sister, Gloria Lees.

Many of you knew Gloria from her many visits for the High Holidays. She really enjoyed coming here, attending services and getting to see the friends she made. She asked about these friends often

Again, thank you, everything was most appreciated

Warm greetings, Beth David Family!

The alternating periods of biting cold, snow, and abnormally warm (but welcome) temperatures, has not stalled the lives of the members of our Beth David family. Simchas and travels illumine this column. Unfortunately, the slivers of happy news have been interspersed with sad news; we have lost longtime members -- or relatives of members -- in the last few months (as noted below).

Leslie and Barbara Bank went to Australia and New Zealand with friends.

Marilyn Bell celebrated her birthday with her son David, his wife Jen and their children, and daughter Rachel — who recently purchased a home in Passaic. Marilyn also spent a few days in Las Vegas.

Toby & Harold Kohn were in Israel for a family wedding in late 2017 and recently spent a weekend visiting with Meryl and Harold Sasnowitz in Passaic.

Rita and Larry Bleier recently returned from a visit to Raleigh, NC, where they took care of their grandchildren while their son, Seth, and daughter-in-law, Maria, attended a business conference.

Mazel Tov to Pinchas and Charney Oppenheim on the birth of their great-granddaughter, Yehudit Chaya, who was born on the morning of January 25th. Yehudit Chaya's parents are Chaim and Miriam Mandel. The Oppenheims were in the United States for the Bat Mitzvah of their granddaughter Sofia, daughter of Heather and Jonathan Douek.

Mazel Tov to Shmuel and Marian Morell on the recent Bat Mitzvah of Shana Kelner, daughter of Sima Morell and Russell Kelner, Bar Mitzvah of Meir Morell, son of Avi and Beth Morell, and marriage of Elieazer Morell, son of Eitan and Varda Morell (in Israel), to Moriya Fuchs.

Mazel Tov to Mel Rozen on the birth of his 24th great grandchild, a boy, grandson of Michelle Donowitz.

Mazel Tov to Rabbi Aaron and Rivky Slonim on the birth of their latest grandson, Mendel Slonim, son of Rabbi Shmuli and Nechama Slonim of Houston, TX

Condolences to the following individuals and their families:

David and Mania DeLeon and Belle and Daniel Prusinowski on the death of their mother, Jeanette DeLeon of Susquehanna, PA—a longtime member of our shul. Our condolences are extended to Jeanette's grandchildren and great-grandchildren .

The Feuer family on the death of Dora Feuer of Florida—also a longtime member of Beth David. She is survived by her husband Steven Feuer, son Allen, daughter Amy and grandchildren.

Condolences to Rabbi Aaron Slonim and family on the loss of his father, Rabbi Zeev Dov Slonim of Jerusalem, Israel. R' Zeev Dov Slonim was a leading rabbi in Jerusalem who, alongside his wife Gitel Leah, conceived of the Chitat (a compendium organized for daily study, consisting of the Chumash, Tehillim and Tanya). A memorial service was held in his honor at Chabad in Vestal on January 25th.

Marlene Serkin's sister Gloria Lees passed away. Gloria made many friends at Beth David during the years she joined the congregation for the High Holidays.

Last, but not least:

We wish a speedy recovery to Ilene Goldman, now living in Delmar, NY

Rhonda Levine and Arie Ullmann were on a trip to Havana, Cuba and will be speaking about their trip at the February Kiddush Luncheon.

A post-Tu B'Shevat Multimedia Art Show was held in Jerusalem, on the evening of Sunday, February 4. The show, entitled, "Nature in Jerusalem: Through the Eyes and Works of Jerusalem Artists," was organized by Nachama-Hadassah -- with Anne Rothenberg as current president —and featured the work of Sarah Lynn Adamit.

Keep bringing the good news as we slowly but surely emerge from the winter. I am looking forward to a festive and convivial observance of Purim with you!

Gina M. Santiago

Please let Gina know of your Simchas, travels, sorrows, or any other doings that would be of interest to our members. She is working very hard to get this information. Thanks.
